

November Syllabus for English Composition 11/12

Mrs. Subhkaram

Objectives: Students will be able to write a research paper in MLA format. They will also be able to analyze grade appropriate literature and create presentations using power point.

California State Standards: Writing Strategies 1:1-1:5; Research and Technology 1:6-1:8; Evaluation and Revision 1:9 ; Writing Historical Investigation reports 2:4

Wednesday, November 4, 2009--- OUTLINE FOR RESEARCH PAPER IS DUE!!!!!!

Review proper use of quotation for MLA format.

Middle Ages video clips – take notes for respective groups.

HOMEWORK: Rough Draft for Research Paper

Monday, November 9, 2009 –(11th/12th Grade) Rough Draft for Research Paper is DUE!!

REMEMBER:::: Paper must be at least 5 pages long in MLA format with your typed outline and work's cited page added to the 5 pages. It needs to be typed!! Be very cautious against plagiarism.

Peer Review – Work in groups in class.

Hand in all King Arthur books.

Monday, November 16, 2009 - (11th Grade) How to write a script – use of literary devices in drama.

Groups prepare script for group project.

Wednesday, November 18, 2009 (11/12th Grade)– Drama script is DUE!!!!

Final Draft is DUE!!!!

Lesson on creating power points – example of an excellent power point presentation.

Possible guest speaker

Monday, November 23, 2009- Power point – group work. Prepare to email all power points to me by Friday.

Presentations for your Medieval Projects will begin the first week of December. Be prepared and review your rubrics.

